UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)	CR No. 10-mj-70233 MAG Plaintiff,) v.)
STEVEN CASTRO,)	STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED]
Defendant.)	ORDER AMENDING RELEASE
)	CONDITIONS RE TRAVEL

At the status hearing in this case held on April 20, 2010, the Defendant requested that the conditions of his release order be amended to allow him to travel within the Eastern District of California. See 18 U.S.C. § 3142(c)(3). Defendant seeks such amendment because the Defendant's employer requires that, in the course of employment, the Defendant occasionally travel to counties which lie in the Eastern District.

The sureties of the secured release bond, Modesto and Guadalupe Castro, parents of Defendant Castro, have agreed to the proposed amendment (see attached Acknowledgment

[PROPOSED] ORDER

For the reasons stated above, the Court finds that there is good cause for the requested amendment to Defendant's release conditions; and that the terms of the Defendant's release be amended to allow the Defendant to travel within the Eastern District of California. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(c)(3).

PURSUANT TO STIPULATION, IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: May 21, 2010

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We, the undersigned, acknowledge that:

1) We are the sureties for the secured release bond for Defendant Steven Castro in the matter of United States v. Steven Castro, Case No. CR 3-10-70233.

2) We agree to the stipulated modification of the terms of Defendant Castro's release to allow him to travel to and within the Eastern District of California.
